The 1901 census records for Walmer and Deal are lost. This has hampered research on this family.

William in 1881 and 1891 was licensed victualler at "The Dolphin", Walmer.

William BULLEN
b. 1847, Walmer, Kent
Mariner / Licensed victualler

Elizabeth Esther SUTTON
b. 1848, Kingsdown by Ringwood, Kent
d. 1903, Eastry District
Dressmaker

m. 1873, St Mary, Walmer

Elizabeth's parents were Stephen SUTTON (licensee of the "King's Head", Kingsdown in 1871) and his wife Mary Elizabeth UPTON. In the 1841, 1851 and 1861 censuses, Elizabeth was with her grandmother Elizabeth UPTON in the village of Kingsdown in the parish of Ringwood, her birthplace being recorded as Ringwood. In 1871, she was with her parents at the "King's Head". In 1881 and 1891, she was with her husband at the "Dolphin Inn", Walmer. The 1901 census records for Walmer (and Deal) are lost.

d. 1904, Eastry, Kent
Laundress

m. 1848, Eastry District

With Robert and Maria BULLEN in 1861 was Robert's niece Jane BULLEN, age 16, born in Walmer. Jane's birth would be in 1844 or 1845 if her age in 1861 is correct. I cannot find her birth registration or baptism or other census records. She could be a natural child of a sister of Robert, but from the dates the only possible mother would be Ann Catherine BULLEN. I cannot find Ann in any censuses. So Jane remains a mystery. Please share with me if you have information.

Maria was baptised in St Mary Magdalene, Woolwich, on 13 June 1830, Maria Elizabeth MAJOR, daughter of Thomas & Maria MAJOR (birth 20 May 1830). At the same time was baptised Maria's twin brother Thomas James MAJOR. Thomas (senior) was an artilleryman according to Maria's 1848 marriage record (Walmer PRs). Maria was in Eastry Union Workhouse in 1901 along with Mary Ann BULLEN, widow of Maria's brother in law, Edward BULLEN - see BULLEN chart (a3).

Robert BULLEN

Elsie married Sidney James Hudson SYRETT in about 1920. Information from contact Patrick Goymer.

Louisa Elizabeth SAUNDERS married Sidney C. W. HERBERT in 1915 (first quarter) in Elham, Kent. [Information from contact Carole Taylor.]

In 1881, Joseph was licensed victualler at the "East Cliff Tavern", Folkestone, and then in 1891 at the "White Lion Inn", Cheriton, Kent.

John's parents were John GRIGG, a boatman, and his wife Sarah [STOKES] who were married in 1856. Both parents were born in Deal. In 1901, John was licensed victualler at the "East Cliff Tavern", Folkestone.

Eliza was baptised at Capel-le-Ferne, Kent, on 8 May 1879 daughter of Austin and Susannah BROMLEY. Austin BROMLEY and Susannah HOILE were married in 1853. Austin was a farmer, born in Capel-le-Ferne; his wife was born in Hougham, Kent.

Herbert John BEWLEY was baptised in 1871, in Stanstead Abbots, Hertfordshire, son of Thomas Edward and Betsy BEWLEY. The parents' marriage was recorded in 1870 between Thomas Edward BEWLEY and Betsy SAVAGE (GRO). Herbert's birth was registered in Hertford District. In the 1881 census, he appears born in Waldern, Hertfordshire, which could be Walkern, which is a place in Hertford District. Stanstead Abbots is in Ware District. In 1901 he is recorded as born in Stanstead, Herts.

Agnes's parents were Francis Edward JORDAN, a practical hatter, born in Deal, and his wife Phoebe Stuppell [KERR] or [BEER], a hat and bonnet maker born in Herne, Kent, who were married in 1867 in Eastry District. (Phoebe was BEER in GRO birth registration, and IGI baptism record, but KERR at marriage - GRO.) Agnes's middle name was Helen in her birth registration (1871, GRO), but Helene in her marriage registration (1892, GRO) and death registrations (1897, GRO). My contact Winifred Edith Taylor, has told me that Henry Fagg SMITH married secondly Edith Caroline Rebecca PRICE in 1901.
